MISERABLE mystification and current journalism have become synonymous. Both leave half to our imagination. When they leave all we will be happy.

THAT celebrated ditch on Front street has been covered. The Dufour wharf has also been undergoing repairs. These improvements were indispensable.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The McHALE Bros. are building a brick residence on Front street opposite Capt. BLAGG'S. Judge KENT is putting another story upon his residence. Dr. CROMLEY has built a new barn in the place of the one recently burned.

They joined issue upon a question of fact in front of a Court street saloon on Saturday. One of them said more than "just the thing he ought," and the other began to act foolish with a revolver. The one left in haste. Such conduct toward a friend is unpardonable. It is well calculated to squeeze all the juice of fraternal friendship out of the heart.

A FELLOW who was spanned in the bogs of Big Bullskin bought a bottle of beer in town on Saturday, and the saloonist sent him round the corner to drink it. We placed our lily-white hand across this cambric front and exclaimed, "who said the ordinance had not been properly passed?"

THE police came down one evening last week, upon those who are wont to go in swimming at the wharf shortly after eventide. They have about broken up the practice, all of which is right.

A FORMAL exchange of the saloon known as the "Sample Room" took place last week. HALL surrendered to JOHNSON, and we suppose JOHNSON surrendered to the former instantaneously that $700 chattel mortgage.

FOUR women; Saturday evening; Public Square. All mad; all jealous; all foolish. Much talk; much nonsense; much character. Those custodians of the peace would not allow them to break it, and scattered them before either could get to snatch the other as bald as a coot.

ANOTHER one of the old friends of the JOURNAL, MR. JOHN S. NORTHRUP, of Green township, called upon us on the 4th and paid his subscription for the ensuing year. He has been a subscriber over 40 years. Long life to all of the old guard.

The Fourth.
In most places throughout the county some proper observance was had of Independence Day. From what information has come to us we glean the following:

AT GALLIPOLIS.
In the city quite a number of business houses were closed, and flags were to be seen in nearly every direction. The heat and dust were almost intolerable. People from outside the city commenced arriving about eight o'clock. At ten o'clock the O. U. American Mechanics, to the number of seventy came out, and with music, marched to the Fair Ground. The programme we have given before. C. W. WHITE, Esq., delivered the address. His peroration, in which he spoke of the Order, was mentioned as particularly fine. After the address a sumptuous repast was spread, and all partook. Many baskets were taken away empty. Dancing commenced shortly after dinner and continued until evening. During the day there were several games of base-ball played on the ground. From the way the returns come in we are rather disposed to think our boys lost some of their prowess. In the evening there was a platform dance in the center of the Public Park. A large crowd was in attendance, and the dance kept up until after eleven o'clock. During the day many of our people took to the country, and all bring in favorable returns. It was a glorious Fourth.

CHAMBERSBURG.
There was a pleasant and interesting temperance picnic at this place. The attendance was large, some 250 persons being present. Sixty went from this city. The occasion was enlivened by singing from the Chambersburg choir, and by speeches from Mr. W. Y. MILES, Mrs. SKEES, Mrs. WILSON, Dr. FLETCHER and Mrs. MARSHALL. Mr. HENRY CARTER welcomed the visitors from abroad in a few well chosen remarks. Altogether it was a pleasant re-union, and an occasion of good to the temperance cause.

MIDDLEPORT.
A large number of our colored citizens visited this place, to join in the services of laying the corner stone of a new church. The colored Brass Band accompanied the party, and made things lively by their excellent music. During the day an altercation occurred between two colored men, not, however, belonging to the company from this city, which resulted in one of them receiving a pistol shot, which will, probably, terminate his earthly life.

AT VINTON.
The platform dance in the grove came off, also a dance in the hall during the evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and everything passed off quietly and pleasantly. There was a game of base-ball played in which the Vinton club came out second best.

NEAR NORTHP.
A party of merry folks from the city went out on Racoon, just below Northup, where RUBE reports they had a jolly, good time. Music and dancing.

ON GEORGE'S CREEK.
There was a picnic somewhere up there, but we have no particulars.

A Sad Accident.
A few weeks since four young men residing at Pittsburg, Pa., concluded to spend the heated term by taking a boat and floating down the river, fishing and hunting on the trip. This they accordingly did, and during the first days of last week found themselves just below our city. While here they spent their time as was their original intention. On Friday, however, they met with an accident that destroyed all the past pleasure. In the morning, armed with shot guns, they took back into the country in search of game. During the hunt, while on the farm of Mr. JOHN GRAHAM, one of them, Mr. JOSEPH DEVENAUGH by name, discovered a snake, and putting the butt of his gun on the snake, called to one of his companions to come and kill it. Coming with a club, he struck at the snake with it, and in doing so struck the hammer of the gun, causing it to discharge. The load of shot struck in front of the shoulder, carrying away the collar-bone, and making a terrible wound. Doctors RATHBURN and BOOTON dressed the wound, but the former thinks the case desperate, as there is a probability of inflammation of the lungs, as many of the shot passed in close proximity to one of them.

The unfortunate man, having no friends or means, was conveyed to the Infirmary, where he has received kindly treatment. All four of the young men are under twenty-one years of age, and work in iron works at Pittsburg. The mother of the wounded man lives in Wheeling, W. Va.

LATER.—Information Tuesday evening states that DEVENAUGH is still in a precarious condition. He has been spitting dark, clotted blood from his lungs. The hot weather is hard on him. If he recovers, credit can be given to close medical treatment and a strong constitution.

Transfers of Real Estate.
Recorder BOOTON reports the following transfers of Real Estate since our last report:
Green Tp.—Aldis Harrington to Marion Harrington, 54½ acres; $1,262.
Addison Tp.—John M. Rife to Charles Watson, 35 26-100 acres; $1,284 75.

Gallipolis Tp.—Louis Scott to John Murphy, N. E. ¼ of lot No. 212; $300.
Chesapeake Tp.—Margaret L. Tins and others to Wm. Lindsey, 104 1-100 acres; $3,200.

River News.
Wharfage collected $26. River very low and still falling. The Hope continues in the Ironton trade. The Andes has been compelled by low water to withdraw from the Wheeling trade. She will find business down the river. The Clara Scott, repainted, started out on Saturday evening. The large packets have all gone to the bank, and their places are well supplied by a lighter class of boats. The license of a pilot on the Katydid has been revoked for life. Three months ago he ran the Katydid into a barge at Pomeroy. The Chesapeake has laid up at Le-tart. The Frank Willard has taken her place.

Prof. Wilson is attending the State Teachers' Association at Put-in-Bay.

NEIL ROBINSON, son of Capt. JOHN A. ROBINSON, of Cincinnati, is in this city visiting relatives and friends. Mr. J. H. MORGAN, of Athens, visited his old friends here during the week.

Prof. SMART and family, of Circleville, are in the city.

Injunction Asked.
A suit has been recently commenced in the Common Pleas Court of peculiar interest. The case is JOHN J. MAXON vs. BAILEY & RIDENOUR, the plaintiff filing his petition on Thursday last. The circumstances which led to this suit we give as set forth in the plaintiff's petition. The defendants on the 1st of January, 1874, being then engaged in the wholesale and retail boot and shoe trade, and being desirous of changing the same to a wholesale trade exclusively, sold their retail stock to MAXON & ALESHIRE, together with good will. B. & R. further agreed for and in consideration of said sale and $1,000 paid to them that they would not retail boots and shoes in Gallipolis, but confine themselves to the wholesale trade. M. & A. took their business room and commenced business. MAXON afterward bought out ALESHIRE, with good will.

The plaintiff claims also in his petition that B. & R., in violation of the contract, have been retailing, and have put down the retail price of boots and shoes, whereby he has been greatly injured in his business. He asks an interlocutory injunction, that B. & R. may be enjoined from selling at retail until the final hearing of the case, and upon final hearing they may be perpetually enjoined, and also asks damages. The answer will be a general denial.

The day most dreaded by Insurance Companies, 4th of July, has passed with its usual number of disastrous fires, rendering many families homeless, and reducing to poverty many who considered themselves above want. When it is taken into consideration that these fires were brought about by the foolish practice of boys shooting crackers, it becomes the imperative duty of city authorities to impose such restrictions upon the sale and use of such articles on that day as may endanger the safety of life and property. The city of Portland, Maine, was destroyed by a fire cracker a few years since, and Allegheny City has narrowly escaped a like fate.

The corporate authorities of every town or city should at once adopt some means to protect their people from the effects of this evil, which seems to be on the increase, and which to prudent men seems a foolish waste of money, which in most cases could be devoted to better purposes.

NEW ORLEANS was the only cool place in the country on the 4th. While all through the West and North the thermometer ranged from 96 to 102, at New Orleans it only marked 73. Well does the Cincinnati Gazette remark: "If such conduct is not, in the highest degree, irrational, what would be?"

At the recent annual meeting of the State Teacher's Association, held at Put-in-Bay, Prof. J. S. WILSON, of this city, was elected Auditor of the organization.

FIRE CRACKERS were destructive as usual on the 4th. They burnt over 100 houses in Allegheny city; destroyed $200,000 worth of property in Pontiac, Michigan, while Toledo escaped with a loss of but $25,000.

Mr. GEPHART has some of the best specimens of American Queensware we have ever seen. And they are cheap.

Business Notices.
Farmers and Grangers.
Ascertain where they can trade to the best advantage, and care nothing about names and localities. They all find where A. MOCH holds forth, although he should move twice a week. They give him their custom because he never deceives them.

Who ever heard of a man with a good reputation as a dealer representing himself as M. MOSES or any other obscure pretender to business abilities? A. MOCH built up his large and successful business by the fairness and honesty with which he deals with his customers! Let others take the same course! and abandon the idea that the honest farmer or granger can be more readily induced to patronize him by humbuggery than by straightforward dealing!

We have always noticed that persons with a bad reputation or no reputation at all are very particular as to the place of business! Between this and that man's place! A. MOCH has no fear that his place of business cannot be found. His well known mode of doing business induces strangers to hunt him up and trade with him too. And care nothing if there were a hundred MOSESs—and it is a good deal better for them if they never find him.

M. MOSES tells you he received another new arrival from New York every week or two. But he is mistaken. They came from some second class houses in Cincinnati. They never saw New York, and he knows it too. You care not whether he bought them in New York or not, but he cannot tell you the truth! He claims he is selling off certain lines of goods at cost, always selling at cost or 25 per cent. above. He has told it so often he will soon believe it himself. Pay no attention to such humbugs, and buy your goods of A. MOCH or some other honest dealer—and does he think anybody in this place can be so much mistaken as to use the name of M. MOSES, thinking thereby to be benefitted, when just the reverse would be the effect?

July 9, 1874. A. MOCH.
